

Industries

As a result of our company history we have unique experience at our disposal in the sphere of worldwide transport logistics for machinery and equipment builders. The special requirements regarding transport safety, freight and customs documentation as well as specific local conditions and non-everyday destinations have assisted us in securing a very favourable position in the medium-size company logistics business. Further companies from other industrial sectors which have similar tasks to accomplish could of course also benefit from our experience.

Contact