AUMUND supports „No Final Exams without Continuation“
July 8, 2019, Rheinberg/Germany

The working relationship between AUMUND Fördertechnik GmbH and Rheinberg’s Amplonius Grammar School grows and prospers. The most recent example is participation in their work experience programme as part of the North Rhine-Westphalian Government’s “No Final Exams without Continuation” initiative.

Eleven pupils of form 8 took the opportunity to learn about the profession of technical product designer. Their visit was rounded off with a tour of the new Show Room where AUMUND products such as chain and belt bucket elevators and various models of pan conveyor are exhibited, showing how they are put into operation in the cement industry, mining and minerals, metallurgy and chemical industries.
